Case No. 2:18-cv-01460-RSM

DECLARATION OF KIM WILBER

Suite: 13206

Judge: Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez

1 I, Kim Wilber, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a Community Trust Program Manager. I am an employee of Amazon Corporate
3 LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Amazon.com, Inc. (collectively, “Amazon”). I have been employed
4 by Amazon since 2012. This declaration is based on my personal knowledge and upon my review of
5 Amazon records and discussions with other Amazon personnel, and if called upon to do so, I would
6 testify knowledgeably and completely to the matters set forth herein.

7 2. I make this declaration in support of Amazon’s Opposition to The Comphy Co.’s Motion
8 for a Preliminary Injunction.

9 3. Amazon users can leave a review for a product that is then made available on that
10 product’s detail page, the page on amazon.com where details about the product (such as title and brand)
11 are listed.

12 4. Amazon electronically stores submitted user reviews in a database, and maintains those 13 records in the ordinary course of business.

14 5. I was asked to query that database and compile all user reviews, from any time, that 15 contain the following text strings, where ‘%’ denotes a placeholder that allows the search to capture
16 results that have any character(s) or no character(s) on either side of the given text.¹

- 17 a. %Comphy%
- 18 b. %comphy%
- 19 c. %COMPHY%
- 20 d. %comfy brand%
- 21 e. %Comfy brand%
- 22 f. %Comfy Brand%
- 23 g. %comfy Brand%
- 24 h. %COMFY Brand%

25 (collectively, the “Text Strings”).

26
27
28 ¹ For example, the string “thecomphy” would be captured by this search, as the string “comphy” is contained within the string “thecomphy.”

1 6. In order to compile the information, I ran a query in the relevant database, which was
2 designed to find the Text Strings in the body of any user review. The query sought all reviews for any
3 review that contained any of the Text Strings anywhere in the review body (the "Query").

4 7. The result of my database query included a list of ASINs ("Amazon Standard
5 Identification Number"). These ASINs were then used to collect from another database, the relevant Item
6 Category, Item Subcategory, and Item Title for each ASIN that had a review containing one or more of 7 the Text Strings.

8 8. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the result of the Query, modified to include the relevant
9 Item Category, Item Subcategory, and Item Title for each ASIN, and filtered to include only "Verified"
10 reviews—that is, reviews provided by a user account that purchased the item in question via Amazon.

11 9. Amazon often applies a label called "Amazon's Choice" in response to user search strings
12 on Amazon.

13 10. I have confirmed that Amazon currently does not apply the "Amazon's Choice" label to 14 any bedding products for any user search string containing the string "comphy". Amazon will not apply
15 that label to any bedding products for any user search string containing the string "comphy" during the 16 pendency of this litigation.

17 11. As of September 28, 2018, Amazon had processed [REDACTED] orders that included products
18 sold by the third party seller "Comfy Sheets".

19 I declare under penalty of perjury under that the foregoing is true and correct.

20 Executed on: 10/24/2018

21 at: Seattle, WA

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on October 29, 2018, I electronically filed the foregoing with the Clerk of the Court using the CM/ECF system, which will send notification of such filing to those attorneys of record registered on the CM/ECF system. All other parties (if any) shall be served in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Dated this 29th day of October, 2018.

1	B00I5RLKB8	REDACTED	4/27/2017	REDACTED	REDACTED	5.11 Tactical Men's Recon Steel Toe Work Shoe,Storm,6.5 D(M) US	Great upgrade from standard issue boots.	Comphy right out of the box. Wore it for 10 hours straight with no discomfort. Perfect length laces, Light weight, my feet weren't hot. I've read sizes run small so I got a 6.5 rather than my normal 6 size and honestly I don't think I needed to. I first loved these and then after I ordered them I looked at the reviews and wanted to send them back. So when they came I opened them up and they were unbroken very clean in a cute little silver box they screw on and are very comfy and they fit in a regular ear pierced hole no need for stretched ears. Love them and very happy.

The dress is super comfy, very very stretchy (I think that Large would fit me too, because I bought another dress from cow cow in LARGE, in the same order, and was fitting very nice without being too tight or causing me any problems at my boobs or my belly). I want to see how the dress will perform in the washing machine. Also, I think that is very flattering for fat bodies like mine.

They are not as "airy" as some other foam brands. These are more dense, softer, and smaller. They go right in and stay in. Not too long either where u might push them in too far.They only con I'd ay about them is that they can be a little weird to take out after a while. The foam matrix is not so "airy" as I call it. So they sometimes get "sticky" in a way, it's kind of a shock to the ear cancel if I just rip them out of the ear after a while. A little twist fixes that. I pull them out slowly as before I could just rip the other brands right out. But to me, this is okay sunce they stay in and I get a great nights sleep!

They gave me wonderful hight, were very comphy but really had 0 arch support (what heel does) I did a fair amount of walking in them (about 2 blocks then stood around and some walking for 2 hours then 2 blocks back) I took a star away because none of the heels have wide width. 65	B00F3Z8CZM	REDACTED	1/10/2015	REDACTED	REDACTED	Eagle Creek Travel Gear Pack-It Specter Starter Set, Tangerine, One Size	Benefits outweigh the costs ...	I recently purchased these for travel and was able to quickly put them to use with a 6 day trip to Aspen over new years. I would say they have more pluses than minuses:Pluses:-Easier organization, your underwear can stay with your underwear, your t-shirts with other t-shirts. gone are the days of a messy search on day 5 or your trip for a clean pair of underwear.-Compression, I felt like I was probably able to fit more clothes into my carry-on than normal. I did 6 days in aspen with a backpack and a carry-on. This isn't abnormal, but I was able to bring a lot of different shirt and pant combo's than normal. Which was good considering I would have to cover everything from nice formal wear for new years eve to comfy lounging clothes for after the mountain.-You can set up a "System" I like order in my life, so these fit in very well. When it was time to get ready I just grabbed my toiletry kit, a t-shirt from my shirt packing cube, a fresh pair of undies from that cube, and the shirt and pants from the folding cube. When it was the end of the day the dirty clothes made their way to my travel laundry bag and we could repeat the process the next day.Minuses:-The first one was that the pull on the zipper of one of the bags broke off immediately. That didn't really affect the product that much though.-They don't open up all the way in a clam shell fashion, so if you want the t-shirt from the "bottom" of the bag you have to unpack then re-pack the cube to get to it.-Hard to fit together in a carry on, this was probably my biggest issue with these, yea they help compress and organize clothes, but they don't "jigsaw" together well in a bag, so I found that I probably

152	B00349M20U	REDACTED	5/15/2014	REDACTED	REDACTED	ONIVA - a Picnic Time Brand Portable Reclining Camp Chair, Black/Gray	Hard to get up from	I purchased this for a trip we take each year so I could have a chair I could get in and out of . I was in a car accident oh so many years ago and it left me with permanant disability in my shoulder. This makes it so hard to get up out of this chair as the arms on it are not stable. I guess I did not originally pay attention to that, so in part it is my fault. I did however have to pay 12.50 to return it. Lesson learned. Otherwise the chair is comphy but if you want to change the seat postion on it you have to do it by getting up out of the chair and clicking the knobs on the back of the leg of the chair, so down on your knees you will go. Not the best design.

He is a tall skinny boy (37in, 32lbs) so these have been great. We set it to the recommended numbers for 30+lbs. He loves it and digs through the laundry to find the one we have, its his "comphy diaper...ah".We tried G-Diapers and he hated them, called them "ouie diapers" and threw fits. The location of the liner snaps fall right at the bend in the hip and leave little red circles. The internal liner also slides a bit letting feces and such fill the little liner hammock. Did Bummies and he is ok with them, but the velcro is too easy for any 2yr old with fingers to unhook at inoportune times. My close friend loves the Bummies for her little girl, shes 7 mo so the fingers have yet to get too curious. She has the different sizes and I used the one-size. The one-size Bummies doesnt adjust half as much as this one can!We have ordered more, he is very excited to get them. Our red one was washed 4 times before use and about 15 times since and still feels/looks great. We are using the flushable liners for easy poop removal, definatly nice.

You have to have to HAVE TO break them in. They also aren't comphy to wear all day. I'm wearing them for a show, and I used them at rehearsal. I would say I had them on for 3.5 hours and damn my dogs were barking. I broke them in a little before I used them by putting on large socks and using a hair dryer. I think I may get point shoe covers to help with the pain in my toes. I usually don't wear heals, so I'm not an expert, but I managed with these shoes. They are also adorable and that's why they get 4 out of 5. We shall see how they hold up during my show, and if they don't work out I'll be sure to write an update!

These help make it so neither of those happen and are so comphy!!! So happy I bought these!!!! I usually wear a med-small pant so I went on the safe side and ordered medium! And at first I thought they were a little roomy but not bad a good roomy!!! Washed and dried them once on low heat! Because reviews talk about how they shrink!!!! And they fits like a glove not!!!! Not too baggy not too tight just right!!!! Highly recommend!!!! Get tons of compliments!!!! And what fun colors they have!!!! Ordering more pairs now ☐

540	B003EPI48I	REDACTED	3/4/2012	REDACTED	REDACTED	Miz Mooz Women's Domino Engineer Boot	Absolutely excellent.	These boots are sumptuous. I ordered the embroidered brown, and they arrived NOT embroidered, but so nice I don't even care. Not worth letting them leave my possession. I wear an 8 1/2 to a 9 1/2 (long, skinny feet) and ordered these in a 9. The fit is fabulous, they are so comfy it's surreal. Loose, but not clumsy. They create a very happy little environment for my feet to reside in. The leather is luscious, outside and inside the wonderful boot. They are no more slick than any cowboy boot soles, I had no trouble wearing them right out of the box all over town on a day between two massive snow storms. In boot cut pants I can wear them over my jeans, or under, the zippers make tucking even non-skinny jeans a piece of cake. I have pretty slender calves, but that is boot cut jeans WITH thermals on underneath. I love, love, love these boots. Perfect, practical, functional and sexy. The distressed finish makes them stand out from the nondistinct masses. Beautiful👍

Strong, grippy rubber--so no fear of slipping. The ring is so nice to even just keep it in place out of the way when not in use. It didn't come with directions, but fairly easy to figure out. I had also wanted to sit at desk with it, but too short. I got the 65 cm as recommended for my height of 5.7. In the future I may get the larger 75 cm for the desk. Meanwhile, the 65 cm is a safe and manageable size. Oh, and it feels so good laying on my back on it. For those whose back is curving inward from working at a desk; this straightens out my posture. I have an up-side-down machine (an inversion mechanical machine) that I may get rid of now since I have this comfy ball!

Works great as a stand.	Very slow fan speed, not much cooling but better than no cooling. My 15" laptop fits well, seems like a 17" will hang over too much. This lap mat will work on your lap as it has cloth bottom. The lap mat will lift up to a nice angle so the keyboard is more comfy. Since the lap mat has space under the stand it will help to cool and will keep the computer off the table/floor etc. My exhaust vents on the computer are on the side with the cooling fans under the computer, mmm. I don't have a solution but it seems like someone like you could come up with an idea. I would not pay $45 for this, $25 seems ok. Update: October 2013, I have used this for about 5 months. Very poor fan quality, it began to make a very loud noise and then just quit. I could not tighten anything or fix it. I do not recommend this product.

701	B0746LN1S1	REDACTED	4/21/2018	REDACTED	REDACTED	Joysoul Rechargeable Double-Sided Hand Warmer 5200mAH Power Bank Portable Pocket Hand Heater USB Mobile External Back up Battery Charger (Gold)	Absolutely love it. I was looking for a small and ...	Absolutely love it. I was looking for a small and lightweight, yet powerful power-bank when saw this one. I wanted to be able to through it in my small purse and forget about it until I need it. This one does exactly that; and the hand warmer feature is a bonus. PROs1. Small and lightweight. It reminds me a flip-phone in size and shape :). Both my phone and it fit in one hand.2. BEAUTIFUL color. I purchased a gold one because I wanted a less Christmassy look (most colors have two deers, this one has only one). So I was a little concerned about greenish-yellow color. When I got it, I was nicely pleased. It is gold with a light tint of pink. Not pink, though!3. Charges fast. I didn't watch exact time, but in about an two-three hours it was full.4. Doesn't show "slow charge" message on my android, so I am very happy.5. Powerful power bank. My phone usually almost fully empty when I get to charge it. So, I powered it two times in addition to actually using the heating feature (who would think I needed it in the middle of April!!!) for about 30 mins and it still has 1 of 3 power indicators on (so I assume it is still 30% full).6. Hand warmer works well. It heats up really quickly to warm feel, like in a few seconds. I had it on the highest setting for about 20 mins ("toasting" my ice-pack-cold feet). It held the temp well.7. Overheat protection. Closer to 20 min time on high it started switching on and off more often (to protect the unit and me from overheating), so I turned it to low and it had stable temp for additional 10 mins or so. Then I was comfy with my cold-blooded body :)CONs1. I wish the little storage pouch and strap were of the same color as the unit itself.

Sound is pretty good (to the untrained ear) and all of the functions this guy has are really nice. The headphones are really light and some of the most comphy ive ever used. They dont get hot at all as they are pretty well vented. They work when plugged into cellphones but can sound tinny because i think these might be a little high ohm. For the price there is nothing wrong with these headphones. However... if you up your budget (because you will probably want to upgrade in the future like i did) get the ath m50x headphones. They far surpass these in in terms of sound quality and are low enough ohm to plug into your phone or handheld gaming device. It really is a night and day difference. Only downside is that the mic is not integral and you will need a separate usb port or mic input to have that function. There are several options for mics you can attach to regular headphones though.

The lounger has been so handy. Our little guy sleeps so well in it! Update: I highly suggest this bouncy/ lounger! We've used it every night for the last almost 19 weeks! It's held up great, no wear and tear, at all! It was the only thing our little guy would sleep in for the first few months! We were in a hotel for the first 2 months of our little guy's life, due to a slab leak and this worked out perfect for us! I went back and forth about buying it because of the price. After 5 kids, I know I've wasted money on things, we really didn't need. This has been the best investment, yet! I love, I can get up and off the floor and it keeps him slightly inclined but still comfortable! Definitely a must have, for us!

766	B000A0A3WK	REDACTED	5/18/2007	REDACTED	REDACTED	Spa2Go STG-1 Round Complete Portable Inflatable Spa	great spa for the money	I did a bunch of research on this spa, and read all the reviews I could find, before we set this up. The reviews were very helpful. We managed to have the perfect spot for the spa, outside but near our laundry room, so we filled the tub with hot water to start with, and avoided the wait for it to heat up. I went thru 2 hot water tanks, (put the cover and bladder on in between waiting for the hot water to replenish) but within a couple hours I was soaking in it, when outside it was in the 40's. I took the advise of one review and left the top cover on, like a blanket, just unclipping a few latches to slide in, and it retained the heat for me. Now the only problem I have is finding the ph kit/chemicals that are user friendly for the spa. Some places include it in the purchase, but I bought it thru Home Depot, and they gave me no choices in style (I recieved the octagon one) and it took 10 days to arrive. (no choices on shipping, or delivery options) But so far so good! It really is very comfy, and the jet action is much like expensive spa's I've been in.

So, I was looking for a small, lightweight, yet powerful. I wanted to be able to through it in my small purse and forget about it until I actually need it. This one does exactly that; and the hand warmer feature is a huge plus for cold-blooded as I am.PROs1. Small and lightweight. It reminds me a flip-phone in size and shape. I can carry both my phone and the powerbank in one hand.2. Has no pictures or any wording on it, love that!3. Charges fast. I didn't watch exact time, but in about two-three hours it is full.4. Doesn't show "slow charge" message on my android, so powerful.5. I can power almost empty phone to full charge twice. The heat doesn't use much of power, which was surprising.6. It heats up really quickly to warm feel, like in a few seconds. I had it on the highest setting for about 20 mins ("toasting" my ice-pack-cold feet). It held the temp well.7. Overheat protection. Closer to 20 min time on high it started switching on and off more often (to protect the unit and me from overheating), so I turned it to low and it had stable temp for additional 10 mins or so. Then I was comphy with my cold-blooded body :)8. Intuitive to use. Has light indicators to let you know much juice is left.CONsNone found yet.

They are comphy, eliminate the need of an up to date pedi, and the sex appeal is literally unparalleled. I've worn these to birthday parties and I basically got my ex back in these shoes. They match everything, literally. They don't blend into the skin, but the pale pink gives just the right touch of femininity to every outfit I've tried them with. The ankle strap is so sexy slim it makes my legs like "ba-bam," it's loose, so no lines, but keeps the shoes well intact, a feat well beyond ,y non-scientifically inclined mind. I can not stress enough how incredible these shoes are. Oh, and did I mention easy to walk in?

And wore them religiously (I am a half marathon runner, but I usually run about 20 miles a week) Once it came time to get a new pair, I was sad to discover that it was discontinued. And replaced with the Ride 5. Upon reading the reviews of the Ride 5, the main complaint is the narrower Toe box (one of my favorite aspects of the Ride 4). But after trying a couple different shoes, I decided to give the Ride 5 a try. The Wide size was too wide, so I went with the average width. While it IS a narrower toe box, I think I can live with it. The shoes are super comfy, but my toes do burn after longer runs. I will keep this updated after my next half marathon in October (first with this pair) But if the Saucony gods are out there listening. IF you want a perfect shoe, keep the 8mm heel drop and bring back the wider toe box.

892	B003EFRE2K	REDACTED	3/4/2012	REDACTED	REDACTED	Miz Mooz Women's Finnegan Boot,Black,40 EU (US Women's 9.5 M)	great diy!	My Finnegan boots also arrived with white patches, but I anticipated such from the other reveiws. I have scored before buying expensive suede boots because the suede was damaged. I am not a fan of suede, too high maintainace. So whenever I have nothing to lose, I love to carefully stain it with leather polish and dyes that explicitly tell you NOT to use them on suede, and apply it with the grain of the leather till it is nice and smooth. It takes a few days (and a heater vent to set them over helps) to really cure, but after a little time and effort, the results are fabulous. These boots are the greatest yet. The flap on top stands beautiffully when unfolded up, which lands it just above my knee- VERY sexy. So comphy, great over the pant or under the pant, though they are a bit tricky to tuck pants into, but worth it. Suede wear aside, the quality of these boots is extraordinary. The price makes me grateful to the poor storage, or dye process, or whatever the unfortunate process was that led to the mild damage was that made it possible for me to get these excellent boots for the steal I did. Bargain of the decade if you have a bit of patience and artistic ability. Very true to size for me. The less polish you can get the texture smooth with, the better. Find the grain and work with it. Or, don't worry about the damage and just wear them under pants, the shaft is pretty fitted, and the non-suede leather foot is perfect.

Also comfy enough for a wide foot. Total heel height is 16cm. Platform height is 4cm. So basically, if you can wear a 12cm heel without platform, you'll be able to wear this. For me this is borderline heel height, not because of the platform, but rather because if I stand on the tip of my toes, my talon will not be able to go any higher. The position of my feet in this shoes is close to this (not as extreme, but very close): http://www.sexyshoesexpert.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/08/highhighheels.jpg The shoe is fairly easy to walk in, but you must be used to high heels. The sole is extremely slippery, specially on carpet. There's a pretty leopard print on the sole, I think this is the reason for the slipping. The print will wear off anyways, so could be better just have used a normal non slippery sole, specially with this heigh. Don't get me wrong, I have other shoes this tall, however, these are not your normal wedges. I think they're inspired from the heelless heel trend. The sole is smaller than on "normal" wedges, so your traction surface is reduced. If you can walk on stillets of this height & platform, you'll be fine. Negative side:- You may feel like you're ice skating on some surfaces.- I see some glue on them. Hope they won't die on me on the event where I'm going.- One of the studs fell off while I was walking on them (trying them at home) Overall love the shoes, they're SO SEXY! However, you may want to plan your trajectory if wearing them outside and having backup shoes with you in case you can't walk in them for long distances. For those of you who are self-conscious or whose partner is self-

They kept rolling down at the top mostly while moving up and down through forward fold. But I felt like I was pulling them up and adjusting quite a bit during class.I also tried to wear them for a run the other day and it was very annoying how often I had to pull them back up into place.They do work great for just a light workout, squats, sit ups, etc.I am keeping the pants because they are so comphy. I can easily wear them camping/ hiking this summer.

948	B000ILQZQY	REDACTED	10/24/2011	REDACTED	REDACTED	Proforce Equipment Shemagh	Kind of waffle weave texture in center, well made	It's a solid color but is woven in a pattern. The un-knotted sides have textured strips of different widths in a symmetric pattern. Some thinner parts single weave & some thicker parts double weaved with long looping darn like stitches that make the double parts feel a bit waffled. Time will tell if the loops will catch, some are 1/2" long or so. These are really 100% cotton, I hand washed it in cool water in evening & in a.m. still quite damp left to drip dry but now 24 hours after washing it's dry. The poly/cotton blends are dry overnight but don't feel so good. After washing it measures 41" x 42" & is a good size to completely wrap the head & neck down to the shoulders without skimping. It's not super soft but it's soft enough to be very pliable & comfy. Not fashionable but functional. It's a keeper. I just wanted to add that if softness is important to you then the Rothco lightweight Shemagh is softer. [[ASIN:B002SGHTUS 4537 LIGHTWEIGHT SHEMAGH TACTICAL DESERT SCARVES]]I have the Foliage version & it's definitely softer with one cool wash for each make of shemagh. This solid sand one is just a bit more course to the touch but it does have the advantage that it looks less like a shemagh, being all one color.

I slid and tore my rotator cuff in this fav pair. BUT I did NOT throw the baby out with the bath water....I sill buy this and other crocs...But I replace them more often. I got this bad because my previous bag was to big this one is a good size tho, It can fit a good amount of text books I have a 3inch hardback bio book a 2 inch paperback programming and a 1 inch spanish hardback they all fit good you might be able to get one more in that is maybe 3 inches before it cant. I will say that the USB dosnt do 2amp so if you plan to charge your school ipad from a 2amp output powerbank your gonna have a problem. I suggest buying a 2amp extensio USB cable like I did and you can easily take of the current one and put a new one in if you tweak the cable. I can fit some kakis and a polo with my ipad in the big front pocket and I could fit more if I tried. Its pretty comfy although no backpad or stap buck that goes across your chest that I would like. Al in all very good bag for the price I would recommend. Its great for someone with 3 or 4 different sized textbooks not all big ones.

These are my go to shoe because they feel great on my feet, are easy to slip on and off and I especially like the soles. The grooves provide traction for ultimate speed cleaning ;) This particular style has memory foam within the shoe. It feels comfy. This shoe / brand is great for indoors, especially outdoors because of the soles, they are stylish. Great for hiking. I usually wear an 8 gym shoe but wear an 8.5 in J-41s. I also have wide feet and these do not cause any foot pain or sore spots. Runs a little small. I felt like the hatch is a little narrow for females to use, but you can unbutton it pretty easy. Also the zipper broke on the second use. I read a review that said this item runs small. I wanted this dress to be comfortable and not tight around the bodice or arms so I ordered a large and it drapes perfectly, just like the picture- the dress in the photo looks more loose than tight fitting. The white sections of the dress are see-through. The material is synthetic, so it had a chemical smell upon opening the package. I hand washed and hung dry outside to get the smell out. I didn't notice that this item is shipped from China, so shipping took a little over three weeks to receive. Over-all, it's a good travel dress that won't wrinkle up, needs no belt so it's comfy. It was an inexpensive dress. I definitely got what I paid for. Hand wash, hang dry maintenance.

Ok, I'm writing a review because others reviews were the reason I tried, yet another pillow. For lots of us a pillow is like a bra, at least for me. Very difficult to find the right fit and almost impossible to find comfort. I could go on forever on how finding a new pillow stresses me out and the years of struggling with pillows and sleep. Mama needs her sleep and all these pillows out there in one way or another made sleeping comfortable, only a dream.. lol BUT NOT LOL Ya know, Ugggg, where is my pillow.. ??????????? Finally found a comphy bra about 3 years ago, when I was 40. Really?? Ok, now at 43, I FOUND MY PILLOW !!!!! Yeah a little weird, and some say it smooshes your face, but for me, weird works. And I have found my forever pillow. Always takes a few tries to get it just right, but I always do and that is a beautiful thing.. 10 stars....

1138	B006GX2HLU	REDACTED	6/11/2015	REDACTED	REDACTED	Red Kiss RUBY Neon Geometric Pattern Platform High Heel Spike Stiletto Cork Pump	my most fun pair of shoes I own	LOVE these shoes! Very comfy, doesn't pinch anywhere. True to size. 2 things to watch out for: 1. Very little of the platform actually touches the ground, it's very rounded. Great for walking, makes standing a bit more difficult. 2. I tend to walk where my toes almost touch each other with each step, it helps with the sashay of my butt and hips, but these spikes will destroy your shoes if you walk like that. Very solid shoe though, heel doesn't slide anywhere, is not at all wiggly. These are my second favorite shoe I own, and my favorite to wear out. (I have one pair where the sex appeal is unparalleled, can't beat that, but these are way more fun!)

Daughter likes it. If you use a rest, be aware that you'll have to cram it into the side zipper pocket. Because of the shape, there isn't room for much besides viola and bow inside. 15" is comfortable, 15.5 will be snug but should fit. This isn't a pro case but for a student instrument it should work fine. Pictures didn't show that it has both a zipper and Velcro closure. I don't know that the velcro does much, could annoy some - looks like it could be cut off if you really had/wanted to.BTW - all zippers work and handle is easy comfy fit to the hand.Liner is adequate - I wouldn't call it plush or as nice as I've seen in pro cases - but again this is targeted at a student.I cannot comment on waterproof - hasn't been in wet weather yet.I would suggest it is worth a try if you need a lighter weight case for your HS or JHS student.

Since we live in Washington State wintertime is cold, wet and sometimes snowy.We walk our dogs in the woods, (3) a rescue Pye, a rescue Golden and a rescue shelter Goldie Chow mix with some Pomeranian mixed in.So we are pleased t3 the nice quality of these boots. Since we are both are retired we especially like the price for such nice looking comphy boots. I will add this to the review for my boots also from Globalwin.Love these! They are vintage looking ,pretty darn cute and so very comphy. I have had major foot surgery 3x on my left foot. These boots are nice and wide at the toes more round like the 1940's-50's style.For the price I'm amazed...they look and feel more expensive. Buy them!

I ordered a size up because of the other reviewers. I wear a size 16 in pants so I ordered an xxl, I could go a size down. It still looks good but it could be just a bit smaller in the waist. I was worried about the ribbon detail making my butt look even bigger, but ladies let me tell you..... It looks great!! This dress is soooo pretty and makes me look and feel like a movie star!!!!!! If you're on the fence, BUY IT!! So comfy and the lace is not stuff or itchy at all. It does need a little anti static spray at first, but then it's ready to go. Perfect for a date, wedding guest or a fancy conference dinner for work. All of which I will be wearing this baby to!!

Only knocked off a star because the screws that came in the package stripped... The right hand horn is too loose for reasonable use. It would also be nice if the package included the 2 different size Allen wrenches required for mounting and some extra screws. I like that it is slimmer then most of the watch bands avail. Couldn't decide on which one to get.. the one I did is really cute just wish the underside wasn't white..it does show at the end where watch lays down under strap., as well as where the watch connects to the face of watch, u can c white at the edges which takes away from the matching to the watch face. Looks like white stripes on each side when u look at the time, wish I could just change that so far...Should b blue or pink whatever is the most color in the watch design,,is my suggestion so far. Other then that it is very cute..might order another one

The lovely blue light is very helpful for me since my last charger was constantly coming unplugged without me realizing it until I was leaving the house only to notice that I had no charge on my battery! That was quite frustrating. Now with the Qi I can see that the connection is good and my phone is charging. Another plus for the light is that I keep my wireless charger near my comfy chair. Many times in the evening when I am on the computer I don't keep the room brightly lit so with the blue light on this wireless charger I can still see my phone and my charger. If light bothers you it might be better to keep this as the daytime charger instead of a bedside one. If lights at night do not bother you this would be a good choice in the bedroom to always be able to see where your phone is. I have a Nokia 920 with a thick case on it that does not in any way seem to impair the charging of my phone with the Qi. If you have not gone wireless on your charger yet please note that it is so convenient to just plop the phone down without plugging it in. You will be so happy when you go wireless charging. Since there are so many reviews already with the box and parts I won't add those type photos here but here are a few photos so you can see the lighting. I received this product at a promotional rate in exchange for my honest, unbiased review. All statements made are 100% of my own based on my personal experiences with this product.

I'm on my feet 9+ hours every day (cook). At first bought these for shooting range and such. Thought I'd try for work and they do great. Added bonus they don't tend to slip or slide much. Way better than something ugly like chef clogs. Hells no.

I have to keep from slipping and falling down. I've done that too many times with dire results, such as broken legs, and broken ribs. The older I get the longer it takes to heal. So I hate to wear shoes inside, and slippers look, "oldish". So I saw these and thought they looked really cute, and comfy. I was right, they are! I wish they came in other colors too. Seem to be well made too. I'm just now using, so we'll see how they last.

They are a bit on the smaller side, I wear a 9 and that's what i ordered and they are just ever so slightly small! So I would suggest going half a size up if you buy these! But I love the look and how they feel! They are super cozy and I love that they have hard soles on the bottom so I can walk outside with them!

1465	B009YRE3OI	REDACTED	6/13/2014	REDACTED	REDACTED	WonderWink Women's Scrubs Four Way Stretch Raglan Sleeve Mock Wrap Top, Caribbean, XX-Large	Love the silky feel of these	I love the feel of these, the top fit just a little big but the next size down is a little too small, so you decide. My only real complaint is that the sleeves are a little short and a little tight. I know that I am a little fluffy but if it fits across my hips it should fit my arms?? I do like the pockets, lots of stuff to keep pens, flashlights, etc handy in one and the little alcohol wipe pocket inside the other. The pants were great, the petite was perfect for length. The hang is just right on the shirt over the pants and the pants have a drawstring as well as elastic making it super easy. Lots of pockets in the pants also. Only other thing (not a flaw) is that these are silky so wear over a non silky bra or wear a chami under it made of tshirt material or put the strap holders on the shoulders (what I did) to keep from slipping to the side and showing your bra strap. These were very cool and comfy and there is no shrinkage. I don't know if they stretch as much as they slide very nicely. I washed in HOT water and tumbled on HIGH. This is how I treat all my scrubs to get the stains and or stink out of them. So far these have held up. I will update on the wear value if they don't last a year with weekly use.

The color is not as bright as the pictured but I can accept it. I usually wear US size 8 and my previous ECCO sandal (size 38) runs a bit smaller than US 8. 1526	B000FKBI2Y	REDACTED	10/8/2009	REDACTED	REDACTED	Cory Everson 2 lb. Wrist Weights (Pair)	Easy to put on & off, feel good, useful.	These Cory Everson 1lb each wrist weights are great, very comfy to wear. They are like two sausages seamed together end to end so 2 seams where they are a bit thinner. Easy to put on & stylish. On my wrist, average lady size, they fall just below the wrist bone. They stack well with my other 1lb wrist weights that are more snug. These are the Definity beige 1lb each wrist weights which are just 1 sausage & 1 seam but even diameter all round. These Definity don't slip at all but are snug & stay put just under the thumb, above & on the wrist bone. I like them both & they go well together. I give the Cory Everson 4 stars not 5 as I would prefer no black color, the insides & edges are black, not a big deal but if we are going for perfection... the Definity have no black. If my wrist were any thicker the Definity would cut circulation & be too tight so the Cory Everson would be better for thicker wrists, they just slide a little on me but it's no problem. I found the Definity scrolling through many Amazon pages of wrist weights looking for a pair with 2lb each weight. They are sold through an external website. They turned out to be 1lb each when they arrived but still good in combo with C E ones. One can use them to fill in the gaps of the weights of dumbbells one has to buy.

THEY ARE SO COMPHY, I even wore them to work where I stand on my feet anywhere from 4-6 hours. No problems at all in these shoes, the soles of these shoes are extremely padded. My only caution is to be careful not to walk down the back of the heel, make sure your foot is fully in the shoe. I did a few times and the back my shoes now have a love and hate relationship with my footies and I have to fix my shoe by hand so that it doesn't appear to be walked down... I hope that makes since, but besides that i'm totally in love! I may be asking for the pink ones for CHRISTMAS!

Perfect for working on concrete all day.

I was able to stuff a king sized down bed topper in it and its very comfy. So far its held up to the huge bed topper being forced into it and my toddler jumping all over it. I was pleasantly surprised.

Sleeves should have been made a bit longer. Also one of my teal colored tops came with a seam coming open. I have 5 total....Like them and will wear them, but the sleeve issue was disappointing. So the quality control needs to be a bit more careful and a slight design change in sleeve length is needed. 18 women is super comphy and loose for super casual wear and the 18 regular more form fitting....I bought both for different uses and occasion.

								Over ten years ago (when I was younger and stupid), I had six 12's and four 10's in my RT Stratus; I competed. (6000 watts over 150db.) These things still get loud enough to give give me a headache. These need a little bit of power so I did buy a headphone amp, the Behringer HA400. They seriously will get loud enough to make you friggin' sick, with little distortion. (They are a little punchy, but they follow through too.) Great sound for the non-existent price!! Worth every penny; plus some. I've had mine for a couple of weeks, and over that time I've read a lot of specs on different Sony headphones. The specs on these come close to matching- and sometimes even beat-Sony headphones with a tag ten times the price of these. I've tortured these, they still sound great. I'm kinda a bass head (rap), so other than alternative, I don't really know how good these sound with different music. I did tape over the little switch on the side on movie for more bass. The switch does make a difference, don't listen to the people who can't tell a difference. I can, the switch if set to music will definitely take away bass response. (If they have too much bass for you you can lessen it easily.) I would not recommend these for portable use, unless you tie up the tremendously long cord. I bought a 25 foot cord, thinking about my other Sony set's like two and 1/2 foot cord. The cord on these is over ten feet! If you look over the cheapness-these are plastic-the speakers in these rock. I read some reviews stating these squeeze the head (the pads on these are extremely comphy), make noises when you turn your head, the headband rubs the top of the head--I've witnessed none of these statements with

They are comfy for her and she enjoys the extra height and sturdiness of the shoe and heel. They really are that amazing!! :DThe pic that she diddle with was done because she does have very heavy legs and was embarrassed by just the regular shot of it. Which is why, I stand by how amazing this shoe is for stability, comfort, and design to embrace that foot!

Normally, I wouldn't think this was an issue except for some reason I've had an almost comedic amount of accidents happen. I injured my thumb, which caused me to pass out. Of course I suffered a head injury because I hit my head when I passed out. My ego was more damaged than anything. After getting the clear from EMS -- who, by the way, laughed at me once they found out I had passed out due to a thumb injury -- I drove home. I decided to mop my floors when only moments later did I step on a staple. Yes, a staple. A tiny staple that hit just so that my son was taking pictures of the blood spatters like CSI. I bled as if I had a gun shot wound. But after just finishing the floors which hadn't been done in ages -- I'm a single mom, so believe me when I say the floors are the last thing ever on my mind -- I was bound and determined not to bleed all over them. After managing to capture most of the blood in the dustpan, I decided after two wounds from metal objects in one day, I'd better update my tetanus shot. So there I am at the walk in clinic having my wounds dressed. I get my shot and the doc insists I go to the hospital for a ct scan due to passing out and hitting my head. So down to the ER I go. After a full day and checking out ok I come home to relax. Finally to the point of this long story. I never, I mean ever, carry my phone in my pocket. Well, as luck would have it and apparently God hated me that day, I couldn't wait to throw some comfy clothes on and go to bed as it was already midnight. So I no sooner drop my pants than I hear plop. In case you hadn't figured it out by now, my phone fell out of

1799	B004I0Z53U	REDACTED	4/21/2011	REDACTED	REDACTED	Ultra Pro Black PRO Dual Standard Deck Box	Ultra Pro: Pro-Deck Box: Black Dual Deck Box Review	First want to start by saying, wow. the box. I know, it's a review about the box, but still. Wow. This was WAY more than i expected, and that's a great thing. so let me get into it. The picture for the box itself is the box when it is open. It dosent seam that small, because the cards in the picture seam quite comphy. wrong. the individual sections themselves hold 90 cards a piece while in cases, mabe more, i havent checked yet, but for the casual Yugioh Player, or competative yugioh player, this product is more than worth the $4 i payed. the sections for each of the cards is bigger and more sturdy than the Yugioh size Ultra Pro deck boxes you usually get from Wal Mart, Target, or what ever your local all purpose super market is. and they are side by side. the deck box can fold upwards, again, being twice the size as an Ultra Pro deck box. while not being able to be put into any pocket like you might normally be accustome to, it does it's job, and it does it well. the box itself opening and closing it pretty self explanatory, but i will explain it anyway, because to some people, it might not be apparent from the picture one deck box faces up, like a normal deck box, whilst the other deckbox is position'd like a side loader deckbox. the top of the box is held together by velcro, so you simply stand the deck box up, unvelcrow the top, and pull it down. and vwala. the size is a bit overwhelming, but i wouldnt expect anything less from a deckbox like this. it's deck boxes are so big, you can keep a packet of un opened Ultra Pro Yugioh Card cases, along side your standard 40 card yugioh deck, and with the second deck box, you have more room! Product i would Like maybe a whole size or size an a half too big. However she LOVED them and wore them around showing them to the neighborhood girls etc. So I ordered them in a 7 and she can wear the bigger ones in like a year or more they are so big. Also the toes light up, the insides are comfy and they are nice quality, but run too big. They are cuter in person, my mom was doubtful from the picture online but was dazzled when they came. The sequins are a nice touch. The variety of colors in them is nice becuse they can go with almost everything.

I have to keep from slipping and falling down. I've done that too many times with dire results, such as broken legs, and broken ribs. The older I get the longer it takes to heal. So I hate to wear shoes inside, and slippers look, "oldish". So I saw these and thought they looked really cute, and comfy. I was right, they are! I wish they came in other colors too. Seem to be well made too. I'm just now using, so we'll see how they last.

I have this case for a while now and I really like it. Its comfy in the hand, the cut out on the back gives me have a more confident grip which helps me use the phone in one hand and it has saved my phone from a few fatal drops. The only reason this case is getting 4 stars is, after a while of using it, the back of my phone is scuffed up with line marks from the case. A small price for protection but still its an expensive phone, its like seeing box marks when you place heavy boxes on your brand new luxury sofa. Hurts a little. But over all, I would confidently recommend this to anyone looking to buy this.

That being said, this hammock is nicer, more comfy and less money.I would have given 5 stars except for the carrying bag is such poor quality I am unsure about the longevity of its life. The hammock and stand are wonderful once put together but the bag is too thin for the size/weight of its stand and the zipper is too flimsy for something this heavy. Also would have been good to have a zippered pocket in the bag for the required nuts and bolts, I can see those being easily lost. Summary:Pros:ComfortableSwingsTwo man sizedInexpensive/bargain for productCons:Poor quality bagParts can be easily lostDoesn't pop open out of the bag = requires assembly to use and disassembling to transportOverall, I give it a 4, near perfect

I've been researching and searching headphones that would satisfy my needs in terms of music and fashion :P.Let's get this straight. If you're looking for cheap headphones you're going to get a cheap product. These headphones arent to pricey but it has quality that should make this 10 or 20$ more than it is on amazon right now. So if you really want to search for some cheap headphones go ahead but you wont regret this purchase.The sound quality is honestly really great. Like I did the "oh shit" puts fist against mouth cause this was pretty good.I have a very average neck length. So instead of the large ass round earcups other headphones have this feels so comfy under my chin since it doesnt even touch.I go to the gym alot so this is great when working at the gym. I havent used it when I was running so not sure about that cardio department.Earcups are so comfy and snug. I love every part of it.ALSO most headphones have this thing that make you look weird because the headband stretches abnormally on the sides but these headphones wrap around your head evenly no matter what your head shape is really, it will look super good. Like it fits so nice I love it.5/5 Snugginess5/5 sound quality5/5 fashion addition5/5 happiness

1914	B003D7LCR2	REDACTED	1/29/2017	REDACTED	REDACTED	Plush Dog Bed Ombré Swirl Dog Bed & Cat Bed Gray 46L x 29W x 3H - Inches for XL Dog Breeds	Wonderful Bed, Happy Dog!	I've ordered two beds for our 10 year old German Shepard. The first bed in the largest size, she extends her body to its full length, and goes into a deep sleep! Bought the 2nd bed in the next size down because it had to fit in a small space in our bedroom near my husband's side of the bed. Our GS has major separation anxiety with my husband. I rescued her last June 1916. We left her at home with family for a week that September to attend a wedding out of state, and upon our return our GSD began wetting everywhere!!! After months of tests, and holistic herbs for anxiety, it was determined that "Z" was so anxious that she was working towards an Ulcer! Hence, the drinking of gallons (not kidding) of water to cool the acidity of her stomach!!! These beds are the best of the 4 bought. They are not especially thick, 31/2-4 inches, but holds its shape, doesn't get lumpy and our dog isn't constantly moving around to get comfy. She doesn't even mind that we left the plastic bag over it for wetting protection!! I will be ordering another for our van, our Vet said no vacations without "z" for at least a year! I apologize for the wordiness, it was an exhausting experience! Great bed, gray color is quiet and quality excellent. Don't be put off by the thickness, even with hip problem, Z likes this bed better than her thicker bed. Liz

But unless the humans in the photos above are actually children this pillow is the wrong fucking size.Its about half the size shown in the photos above and I am incredibly dissapointed. Other reviews stated it would take a few days to get used to them, no way, very comfy and no break in time at all, slept like a baby! We bought 2 as we have the split king adjustable bed frame and these mattresses work great on them. Only problem I have is finding quality twin XL fitted sheets!! Shipping and packaging was good and delivered within the week ordered. Recommend this and very satisfied even though we were apprehensive at first to take the plunge from air to foam.

I ordered to wear after knee surgery. Just cut off the extra length to your height, and your good to go, the fabric does not run, have washed several times and the fabric is like new, no threads un-ravel from being un-hemmed and does not curl up like some fabric. Have several pairs, the fabric texture is very slinky, soft and cool on your skin. LOVE these pants. Would absolutely recommend... What a FANTASTIC product! Avid camper and have had a ThermaRest for years, but saw this advertised for some silly low price during Amazin Prime Day. Gave it a shot because the reviews were good and it was stupidly cheap and it exceeded expectations! SO comfy, great valve system, comes with a discreet patch kit (in its own pocket in the storage sack), super light and it packs lto a bag the size of a San Francisco super burrito! SCORE!!No rocks poking me, didn't slide off it, just a great, great product! A million stars🌟🌟

READ b4 buying.	CONFIRM: After a couple weeks of wearing even the foot pad area sinks, flattens and the cloth scrunches up. VERY cheap.*WAY overpriced for what they are. These are more like a $3.00 pair that you can find in your local bargain store.*DO NOT look as nice as pic, the lep print is on a cheapy material.*The top part stretches FAST, within an hour of NON WALKING wear.*They are SERIOUSLY undersized, thankfully I read the reviews first, I wear an honest 9 1/2 and got the super sized that claims to fit 11-12 us size, my heel STILL touches the roll of cloth on inside of heel-irritating!!! If you wear anything over a size 9 womans, these will NOT fit you even in their XL sized. That being said there is also TOO MUCH ROOM in the toe area, good to protect your nubbies from stubs but still TOO MUCH room.*The center toe piece is..well it is soft, yet leaves a deep red mark on my middle toe and I am a flip flop wearer. As if nothing about these shoes is lined up right.*The memory foam, is thin and again in less than an hour goes flat with no real rebound.Pro's-*The footbed material and inside of top part is very very VERY soft and feels GOOD on footsie bottoms.*Lightweight-no flap flap as you walk.*Sturdy enough to wear out or go outside in (not on grass but walkways/stores etc. Sure.)*One review stated that they made black marks on wood floors, I ground my foot with shoe on into the wood floor, no marks.You can bend these in half with just finger and thumb, but still the sole does have a little thickness to it.Might protect foot form some tiny rocks or if you broke a dish and are sweeping, but not much else. I got these as they seemed

2181	B003H2I2ZS	REDACTED	12/25/2012	REDACTED	REDACTED	Relaxzen Deluxe Leisure Recliner Chair with 8-Motor Massage & Heat, Brown	Looks can be deceiving.	I bought this as a Christmas gift for my father who has a bad back hoping it would help. While assembly is ok, it took about a hour to put together. The chair itself is very light, the UPS women carried by herself form the truck, I was like " humm " It is lightly padded, the picture makes it looks thick and comphy, it really isn't. I'm 5'8" and my dad is 6'1". My head doesn't touch the headrest, it's more suited for a small framed women who's about 5'4". The massage feature works ok but not great. It's now 8:14 am on Christmas morning and I'm embarrassed I gave this to him as a gift. It's no way worth the price their asking, if it was $50 less then maybe it would be an ok office chair. My plans was to put it in the living room but we decided it's going in the bedroom. I would send it back but the thought of taking it apart and trying to stuff it in the box is not happening at the moment. I hope this review helps future purchasars from making the same mistake I did. This chair is best suited for an office chair and nothing else.

I have to keep from slipping and falling down. I've done that too many times with dire results, such as broken legs, and broken ribs. The older I get the longer it takes to heal. So I hate to wear shoes inside, and slippers look, "oldish". So I saw these and thought they looked really cute, and comphy. I was right, they are! I wish they came in other colors too. Seem to be well made too. I'm just now using, so we'll see how they last.

2227	B005N8A4Z0	REDACTED	10/19/2013	REDACTED	REDACTED	Klipsch Mode M40 Mode Headphones - Copper/Black (Discontinued by Manufacturer)	These headphones are awesome	These are my first high end pair of headphones. I had a pair of sennheiser's, forget the model, but they were non- noise canceling $99 ones. They were great but weren't that comfy, and over the years have fallen apart. I wouldn't have gotten these except they were the deal of the day, and I said... Klipsch? For $140? I have to, every klipsch product I have ever bought has been amazing.Sound-Great. No other way to put it. First song I listened to out of the box made me cry it sounded that good. I expected nothing less from klipsch. The high end isn't as perfectly clear as it could be, but I imagine that will fix as they break in. Could just be the song I was listening to, I'm not using FLAC or anything, but if you want good sounding headphones, these sound great. Makes everything else sound like crap. Will spoil you.Noise cancelling -Works. I will rarely use it, the fact that they are over the ear cancels plenty of noise already -- and they are nice and snug, Maybe why some users have trouble with the fit, they are snug, but it makes the noise cancelling better.Fit --I don't have a problem with the fit. Honestly these are one of the more comfortable pairs of headphones I have worn, and I have glasses too. It takes maybe 30 seconds to move them around on your head to get it just right, but honestly they don't feel tight or uncomfortable at all. I mean, they aren't in ear headphones. But maybe I'm like the perfect head for them, but honestly they feel like a snug pillow around me. Was like that the second they went on my head. Maybe everyone else is a baby. #firstworldproblemsFeel--This feels like a premium product. Solid, the case is A+ and I have never used a case

So where do I start? This thing is great but also has a few things that could make it better. This pillow gives great support and can form it into any shape needed. This pillow is smaller than most pillows which I really like. It seems to hold up well so far (1 week).What's bad about the pillow is the smell which is about completely gone now(1 week). You might have great sleep with it one night but can't seem to find that portion the pillow was in...you can almost never find the same position later it seems. The case and the cover could have been sewn into more compartments so the beads don't all go to one side . also the fabric is stretchy and comfy but I wonder how well it holds up. Also this thing gets really warm, something I don't care for much.Update: this pillow is falling apart . there are beads between the pillowcase and the pillow. And after using this for a few weeks I don't think I will continue using because it gives me a stiff and sore neck. Also the chemical smell is still there.

This is a great value product. My favorite sheets are from Comphy Co but they are three times more expensive than these. These are very soft but a little less soft and breathable than my favorites. However these are a better value and still far better than the average sheets. I washed them before putting them on the bed (cold water, regular heat dryer) and they did just fine and didn't come out wrinkly. The color is very nice (I got burgandy) and looks beautiful with my silver comforter set. I'm really satisfied with this purchase. (And I paid full price--did not receive a discount to write a review.)
2488	B002GWJA56	REDACTED	2/16/2016	REDACTED	REDACTED	Nouvelle Legende Microfiber Spa Quality Bed Sheet Set, Full Size, Blue (4-Pieces)	Great for the price.	I was looking to buy genuine Comphy sheets when I came across this set on Amazon. These are indeed very nice sheets. Perhaps not as silky as the Comphy sheets, but smooth and silky enough to please me. The real value lies in the price, which is half what the Comphy sheets sell for. I was concerned about how well they would wash, but found that they performed there very well too. After two washer and dryer cycles, the sheets are still soft with no pilling. They come out of the dryer relatively wrinkle free, but you must remove them immediately. If left to sit in the dryer, they will wrinkle. The minor wrinkling doesn't bother me. It's not as if they need to be ironed, something that would give them a "no-stars" rating from me. Overall I rate these sheets 4-1/2 stars. I haven't yet found others as nice as these for this price.

This is the same manufacturer (Latex International aka Global Industries) that I got my latex cores from. They are excellent. The pillow's structure is the same with the same plush "in the cloud" feel but providing plenty of support and bounce back, if I had to guess a firmness of 19 ILD. Am ordering one for my wife as the old Serta pillow feels terrible to her after experiencing the Talalay pillow. Let it air out for day and enjoy. BTW, latex lasts "forever", expect at least 30 years out of this pillow. The best sheets in the world, "Comphy", sheets are due next week.

At first I was concerned that the quality was not so great; the weight of the fabric is much less substantial than Comphy. But they came through the first washing just fine, they fit the mattress well, and are super soft and comfortable. Since I like to replace my sheets every few years anyway I think these will work out well and I'm considering purchasing two more sets for the spare beds. Then when I developed bursitis a friend felt maybe I need a new kind, one from Wallie World. So I cut mine down and put it on my bed in the spare room. I had bought this in queen size and the bed in that room was double. well, the Wallie World one didn't help my bursitis as I continued to agitate it. Then I decided to get a new pad, because my sheets were tearing at the corners, so I thought I needed to go back to a less deep pad. While it was coming in the mail my sister told me that I hadn't bought the right size of sheets, so I got those. My mattress pad was still too think for the new sheets, and so we decided to put the new mattress pad on the bed and to get rid of the Wallie World one if we found that this mattress pad irritated my bursitis. Well, it didn't, and I must say with this mattress pad and my new comphy sheets, I did not want to get out of bed.

Bottom Sheet in Brown has stains & not as deep as other brands.	I ordered a couple of sets of these; two (white and gray) in a full/double bed size which are adequate and a queen set in the chocolate brown size. The brown set isn't overall as soft as the others and it oddly seems like the bottom sheet is thinner and less soft than the top sheet. In addition, there are some white marks/stains on the bottom sheet which I thought would resolve when I washed them, but they did not. In addition, the bottom sheet isn't as generously deep as must of the Queen size sheets available today that can accomodate the thicker mattress sizes.I followed the laundering instructions and washed them alone -- in Woolite detergent that's especially formulated for dark fabrics in cold water only. I used the delectate low-temp dry cycle and the set was dried by itself and hasn't come into contact with anything that could have caused the discoloration marks.They're not expensive, and I was trying them as I hoped they would serve as a replacement for the Comphy brand spa sheet sets that we prefer (but that are five times the cost). Note that it may be that the other colors don't have these issues; although the white and gray (full/double bed sized) sets from this brand are also very thin and the gray set was much more gray-green than gray. It's not that they're unsleep-able, just don't expect high quality sheets for a bargain price.

Not all microfiber sheets are created equal - but most of them are... This is the same sort of thin, low-quality microfiber sheet as any you will find in this price range. If this feels nice to you, then that's great. The only reason I tried these was because they were cheap and because Comphy Co. doesn't make a black set. Once when I was staying at a hotel in Portland during a road trip by myself up the coast, I was on the phone with my fiancée talking about my day while getting ready for bed. I pulled the covers back and shoved my feet in and then immediately jumped back out and started pulling the bed apart to look for a label because they were the most amazing sheets I'd ever had touch my skin. I had my fiancée look them up while we were on the phone and found that you could only buy them at spas and hotels that carry them. Then we found out the price and were like "forget it." But I'll tell you - after a night sleeping in that bed, I became obsessed with Comphy sheets. When I got home, I broke down and bought a set online. Most I've ever spent on sheets. More than I've spent on like 4 or 5 sets of sheets. We had been sleeping on Modal sheets for a long time. Before that, I always bought flannel. Switching to a good microfiber sheet set is like night and day. I have since become a sheet snob. I've talked a bunch of friends into buying them, I've bought some as gifts, and now we own a blanket, 2 duvet covers, and 4 different color sets. They just don't have a black set. So this Mellanni set - I wasn't expecting to be as good, but it's so not even close. I thought if they weren't good enough to sleep in, we would use them in the guest room... but they

Very Soft, Thicker Than Expected And No Wrinkles After Laundering.	I ordered the charcoal gray color in the Twin XL size and am trying these as a spare set instead of the Comphy brand microfiber spa sheets that we've used for the last five or six years (but that are five times the price). Twin XL can be a difficult size to find and often the quality is low as they're designed for college dorm room bunk beds.I ordered sets from the "My Sweet Home" collections at the same time and the quality of these is much thicker, and is softer than than the sets I received from the "My Sweet Home" brand. I'm ordering an additional couple of sets of these as for the price, I don't expect them to be as durable as a more expensive brand.I washed the set by themselves in cold water with a Woolite brand detergent that's specially formulated for dark colors. They were machine dried on the gentle setting and emerged without wrinkles (certainly in comparison to our 800 thread-count cotton sets that come out of the dryer in a basketball sized wrinkled mass). Note that I didn't let them sit and cool off in the dryer, but pulled them out just as the cycle finished.They also dried very quickly which is nice when one has more than a couple of loads to do.Note that the gray color is more of a greenish/brownish-gray in person than it appeared on my computer screen (yours may be truer). While I wish it was more of a true black-gray, it's absolutely acceptable and overall for the price is an excellent deal.Wish they sold these in Queen or King sizes, but I only see them in a full or Twin XL size. If anyone knows whether they sell them under a different brand, would appreciate a shout.

If I could wear these sandals every day of my life, I would. I have quite a few pair of Keens, Clarks, and other "comfy brand" shoes, but these take the cake. I got the black, and I love how the narrow straps make them look more attractive and feminine than your typical Tevas (or even Chacos, which are overpriced). I wear them with rolled up skinny or straight leg jeans, and sometimes with shorts--but I rarely wear shorts. They are not quite nice enough to get away with at work, but for literally every other activity, they are phenomenal. I have worn them on all-day errands, a 3-day music festival, to concerts, and just to walk the dog. The arch support is unmatched, they mold to my foot like they were made for it, and the materials feel solid and durable. I liked them so much I ordered some Teva strap wedges to wear to work. This is my new favorite shoe brand (especially since Keen has apparently decided to start making all their cute shoes uncomfortable and all the comfy shoes ugly...not to mention Keen sizing issues).

However, these looked cute enough to gamble, AND they were waaay cheaper than I've ever seen any other Earth shoes. So, I bought them and have never regretted it. They are extremely comfortable, I wear them whenever I know I'm going to be walking for a while, or when I have been torturing my feet in one of my less comfy pairs of shoes. Now, I always think twice before I buy a pair of really cute shoes and try to find a comparable style in a comfy brand. :)Modified: 1/27/2013Ultimately, I got rid of these because the sole wore out & other, better looking and equally comfortable, athletic shoes came along. I have ordered Walter Drake/Miles Kimball, Soft n Comfy, and the Warm n Comfy brand is the plushiest and best designed of all, and definitely worth the extra couple of dollars. Quick delivery time. I have a few of the original Walter Drake seat covers from over 20 years ago, and except for the metal wire that tends to rust with any washing, they are still holding up, their materials were acrylic and tight weave. Design of this brand is better, though it's certain the elastic will wear out before any other part! Colors are pictured. NOTE: be sure to hand wash it in warm water with an oxy-clean type liquid detergent and line dry, as dryer heat will damage the plastic and dry out the elastic making this non-usable in no time.

The Soft n' Comfy brand does fit my padded seat, and I actually thought I was purchasing that when I bought this Warm n' Fuzzy brand. I noticed that the fabric on this product is softer and more cushy than the Soft n' Comfy brand, so I was excited to try it out on my bum, but unfortunately it slips right off the seat. I even tried using the Soft n' Comfy plastic tubing inside Warm n' Fuzzy's cloth cover, but to no avail. It must be the cloth cover itself that's smaller. Like others have said, it seems pointless to return such an inexpensive product. Hopefully I can give it to someone with a standard, ceramic seat (not a cushy plastic seat like mine). I'm guessing the extra fluff on the seat is what makes it not fit.Update: We ended up using it in my husband's bathroom. At first, I didn't think it would fit our regular non-padded toilet seat. It kept slipping off when I put it on. But I eventually did manage to get it on there and it stays put most of the time. It's a little frustrating to work with though. I get the impression that Asian toilets are smaller than American toilets. Maybe that's the problem with some of these seat covers from the Far East. It's not really more cushy now that it's stretched over the seat. It's actually quite thin and you can see the white seat underneath it. But we've been using it for a year now, so that could be why.

Everyone dreads that long airplane flight when they'll be forced to sit upright for half a day, unable to get comfortable and barely capable of keeping their eyes open from the exhaustion of traveling. Some turn to the traditional U-shaped neck pillows, enduring the embarrassment of wearing what looks like a life preserver, while still not achieving fantastic rest. Others simply nod off, tilting their head from side to side, waking with an unbearable neck kink that will send them to a chiropractor. I am totally guilty of the latter choice, waking every time the plane hits an air pocket or when my body wants to wake me up..then I feel foolish because I think I was looking like a bobblehead ,lol !! decided to try out the Air Comfy brand pillow, and I do feel a bit of difference. For me, it took a little getting used to, though. Blowing up your own pillow looks a little weird when you're on a plane doing, lol. But it well worth the awkwardness that lasts only a minute. It is nice to have a pillow that doesn't go flat during the night though. As far as the noise of rustling buckwheat hulls...that hasn't been an issue for me at all. These pillows are 100% made in the USA with extremely high quality components. If you would like a buckwheat pillow I highly recommend the Comfy Comfy brand. Be sure to look at the sizes closely before ordering to make sure you get the size you want. Also, the originator of this brand has a video on YouTube on how to properly use a buckwheat pillow.
